

This document represents the Agreement between the Agent and employer in relation to Wage Reimbursement Schedules.

Set out below are the conditions of the Agreement.

1 Time frames for submission of reimbursement schedules by employer

The employer must submit reimbursement schedules within 10 calendar days of the end of each month.

2 Overdue reimbursement schedules

Where two (2) or more reimbursement schedules are overdue, the Agent will:

- terminate this Agreement with the employer; and
- reimburse any outstanding weekly compensation benefits to the employer in accordance with information contained in medical certificates and available details of weekly earnings.

3 Time frames for payment of reimbursement schedules by insurer

The Insurer will:

- reimburse the employer within 5 business days from receipt of the reimbursement schedule; or
- reimburse the employer within 7 days, without submission of a reimbursement schedule, for all non-significant claims (that is the worker is likely to be off work for less than 7 days, even if these days include partial incapacity).

4 Claim excess provisions

Any claims excess will be automatically offset against the employer's claim for reimbursement of weekly benefits.

Employers who report injuries to CGU Workers Compensation (NSW) Limited – Agent for the NSW WorkCover Scheme, within 5 calendar days of becoming aware of the injury, will have the excess waived.
